Bury Former President

Regarded by most as "a great President," Harry S. Truman is being buried this afternoon in his home state of Missouri, nearly two decades after his 1945-53 White House service, one of the most eventful Presidential tenures ever.

Mr. Truman died quietly Tuesday morning and people of all walks of life paid respects yesterday at Independence, including President Richard M. Nixon and Lyndon B. Johnson, now the only living former President.

Today is a national day of mourning and flags have been at half-staff throughout the U. S. since his death was announced.

There were moments of silent prayer at public meetings in the Quad-City area this week. Praising the "common man" and condemning "big business," former President Truman urged election of a full Illinois Democratic slate in November, 1962, at a Venice dinner meeting Saturday night July 28, 1962, attended by 700 party faithful.

The crowd had come to hear a typical "fighting" talk from the guest speaker, making his first stop here since the 1952 "whistle stop" Presidential campaign for Adlai Stevenson. He did not disappoint, roundly condemning Republicans and voicing the belief that historians will rate the Truman and Kennedy administrations higher than the intervening Eisenhower terms.

Mr. Truman posed with elected officials and would-be officials and conferred briefly at the McKinley Bridge office with local officials and Gov. Otto Kerner and Cong. Sidney Yates.

Dobrey Area Drainage in Early 1973

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

A $50,000 interim plan for solving drainage problems in the Dobrey Slough area of the present Amos Avenue Sewer.

Namecki Township was outlined for area residents and local officials at a special meeting last night in the Granite City office of the Madison Levee and Sanitary District.

Presenting the plan was John Guillo, chief engineer of the Illinois Division of Waterways.

He said the proposal calls for installation of an underground 10-inch storm-water sewer line from the south end of Dobrey Slough, passing south under the Pontoon Road and then turning west until joining the present 24-inch Amos Avenue Sewer (also called Pontoon Road sewer), and into the Namecki Ditch.

Water from the slough area, along with water from the present city line, would drain through the Namecki Ditch into Horseshoe Lake.

The level of the lake will be maintained at its present level by gates which now are being installed, Guillo explained.

The section of sewer which would have to be constructed would be a pressure line, forced by a 1,000 gallons-per-minute diesel pump, and in order to avoid a backup of water in the municipal sewer, a 4,000 gallons-per-minute pump would be installed at the end of the present sewer where it meets Namecki Ditch. State and federal funds for the project now are available, he said.

The proposed drainage line not only would be sufficient to drain all of the water in Dobrey

Slough, except during heavy rains, but also would help the problem of sewer backup during heavy rains in the area of the present Amos Avenue Sewer.

He said with co-operation from Granite City and the residents through whose property the new sewer line would go, construction on the interim sewer line could begin in early spring. He did not estimate when the project could be completed.

"We do not anticipate any problems in getting the needed agreements. The people in this area are aware of the need and the damage from flooding. There will be less flooding on their land because of what we do," Guillo stated.

"Granite City can slow us up but the Illinois General Assembly gave me the horses I need to go to court and get what I want. We don't ex-

See Cruse As New GC Assessor

Von Dee Cruse, 2404 Edwards St., a former Granite City alderman and township assessor, is slated for appointment as tax assessor by the Granite City town board. It was reported in political circles here today.

Some sources said the appointment was scheduled to be made Tuesday night when the Granite City Council convenes as the town board.

Fill an appointment would be made Tuesday night when the Granite City Council convenes as the town board.

Cruse also is expected to file nominating petitions as a candidate for the assessor's post in the April 3 township election. The present term of the office expires April 1.

Although Cruse had not filed as a candidate today, petitions for supervisor of Granite City

For Venice Town Supervisor Pashoff Candidate

Arthur "Cooper" Moore, supervisor of Venice Township for 20 years, plans to retire from that office when his term expires next spring in a move that has placed a fully reorganized slate of candidates in the field for election to Venice Township posts in the April 3 elections.

The realignment of candidates who will campaign for township offices with the support of the Madison-Venice political organization also involves the retirement of John Bridick, new township assessor. His term also expires next spring.

Christ N. Pashoff, 1230 Madison Ave., operator of the Washington Theatre in Granite City and health inspector for the city of Madison, will be the candidate for supervisor of Venice Township, the post now held by Moore.

Frank Reidelberger Jr., 1240 Klein St., Venice, now serving as township tax collector, will be the candidate for the township assessor post which Bridick will not seek re-election. Nominating petitions for Pashoff, Reidelberger and six other candidates for township offices who will run as members of the Independent Labor Party were filed Tuesday evening with Thomas Foley, town clerk.

Jerry S. Maeras, 811 High St., Madison, a son of the late Madison Mayor Stephen Maeras, is bidding for election as town tax collector, the office now held by Reidelberger.

Foley, who lives at 717 Broadway, Venice, will seek re-election as town clerk.

Three incumbent members of the town board of auditors will seek re-election on the ticket. They are Earl T. Mosley, 707 Bissell St., Venice; Albert Topal, 1618 Fourth St., Madison, and James Woodmore, 634 Lincoln St., Venice.

All townships will elect a fourth member of the town board in the 1973 spring election. The candidate for that office on the Independent Labor Party slate in Venice Township is Benjamin Honorable, 1041 Calhoun St., Venice. Honorable is Civil Defense director for the city of Venice.

While Moore is to retire as supervisor, he will remain as a member of the Madison County Board from District 24. He was elected as a County Board member last April.

Moore, who lives at 1609 Elizabeth St., Madison, has lived in Madison 51 years. He is 72. He is a former state highway policeman and a former state license investigator for the Secretary of State's office.

The 24th County Board district that Moore serves includes Venice precincts 3, 6, 7, 8 and 9 and Granite City precincts 1 and 2.

Bridick, 62, has served one four-year term as township assessor. He is a former desk clerk at the Madison Police Department, a former Madison alderman, police magistrate and school treasurer. He served as chairman of the Madison County Democratic Committee from 1958 to 1960.

GC Hopes to Proceed Without Redesigning Treatment Plant

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer

A notice of intent to accept a low bid of $10.8 million for construction of Granite City's proposed secondary sewage treatment plant—subject to the award of federal and state grants—was authorized by the City Council Tuesday night.

The action was taken in the face of another federal hearing session in which state and federal pollution control authorities are scheduled to consider a possible reduction in the size of the secondary treatment plant, as it is now designed.

The hearing will be held in the city hall at 10 a.m. Jan. 4. In its decision to accept the $10.8 million construction bid by the G. L. Tarkenton Co. of St. Louis, the council overrode a suggestion by Alderman R. E. Robertson, chairman of the council's Pollution Plant Committee, that action be deferred until after the hearing and a determination of any change that might be ordered in the present building plans.

The bid by the Tarkenton firm was the lowest of five received by the city in mid-November. While it is $300,000 over the cost estimate by M. W. Engle, architects of St. Louis, the city's special engineers for the treatment project, it was described in Tuesday night's council session as a "very satisfactory bid."

Aaron Pierson, vice-president of the M. W. firm, told the council that the bid "is very close to the target and is within the 10% in excess of cost estimates allowed by the federal government. The bid is 2.5% over the estimate."

Pierson noted during council discussion of a motion to accept the construction bid that if the federal and state Environmental Protection Agencies were to order a cutback in the size of the proposed secondary treatment plant from its present design of 23 million gallons daily to 20 million gallons, "I doubt if we would gain anything cost-wise."

He said a redesign of construction plans, new bid calls and other procedure "would take another five months time, in which construction costs would rise, and we would end up with a cost almost the same as that we now have for the 23 million gallon plant."

Alderman Walter Norn of the Fifth Ward and Alderman Everett Morlen of the First Ward were the only two aldermen to vote against acceptance of the $10.8 million construction bid, although the action was made subject to the award of federal and state grants to pay

Annual Babson Forecast Some Problems Ahead But '73 Business Outlook Encouraging

Copyright 1972
Publishers Financial Bureau
By Babson's Reports Inc., Wellesley Hills, Mass., Dec. 28, 1972.

Our Forecast a year ago was heavily laced with reasons for optimism regarding economic and financial prospects for 1972. In retrospect, our two key predictions proved to be correct.

On the economic front we envisioned the emergence of a more hopeful attitude on part of businessmen and consumers that would speed up the economic recovery.

On the financial front we projected a good year for the stock market in 1972, and indicated that the Dow Jones Industrial Average would pierce the 1,000 mark in either late summer or early fall.

healthy environment had it not been for the politically motivated rhetoric on some of the less-than-Utopian aspects of the business picture.

The most facile means of forecasting is, of course, simply to take prevailing conditions and project them into the future, even through this is not necessarily the most logical or accurate way.

Such an approach is commonly used among laymen, and often even by those more knowledgeable in business affairs.

Little wonder, then, that just as optimists were conspicuous by their absence a year ago, most forecasters of 1973 business up to this point reflect today's enthusiasm and happy anticipation.

Pockets of Potential Trouble

The staff of Babson's Reports once again stands somewhat apart from the herd and takes a more moderate view of developments over the next twelve months.

Our opinion is generally optimistic, but it does incorporate a healthy respect for some of the vital problems which the nation's economy may have to face in the new year.

Hence, readers of this Babson Forecast are advised to be psychologically prepared to cope with possible disruptions of varying intensity along the line, not only on the monetary scene, in the fight against inflation, and in areas of high sociological sensitivity.

Strike Threat

A year from now, we may look back and credit labor relations with having molded the profile of 1973's business pattern.

Whether the nation is to suffer an inordinate degree of economic dislocation during the coming twelvemonth could depend to a considerable extent on just how aggressively and persistently labor leaders press their demands, and also on how the Administration handles the labor issues in its effort to stave off serious, long-term injury to the economy from further ravages of inflation. While the Babson staff is hopeful that the overall damage will not be excessive, there are bound to be a number of conflicts which will sag business and public confidence for a while.

Labor-management confrontations will start at the crack of the new year and, except for brief respites, will remain on scene throughout 1973. It is estimated that more than 4,000,000 workers in a list of key industries will become involved in new labor contract negotiations.

First at bat are the United Rubber Workers who are already facing the petrochemical companies to hammer out a labor pact to replace the one just expiring.

Bargaining will be due thereafter in rubber, cement, construction, apparel, retail trade, services, electrical mana big part of the construction cost.

At the same time, Mayor Donald Parney told the council that "we have been negotiating with Madison and Venice to consider the possibility of their use of our treatment plant. I also have had a call from city officials of Edwardsville who have indicated an interest in a plan to run a line from Edwardsville to our plant."

Parney noted that the additional treatment for these cities would justify the present design of the proposed treatment plant to handle a 23 million gallon capacity.

In addition, the mayor said, Corn Sweeteners, Inc., which closed its Granite City plant in mid-October, "is on a five-day standby to reopen the plant at any time that corn prices drop enough to make operations profitable."

In view of the approaching Jan. 4 hearing, council members suggested that City Attorney Leon Scroggins marshal all the evidence available to support the present design of the proposed treatment plant. City officials have contended that state and federal EPA authorities have placed the city "in the middle" in its attempt to meet deadlines for required sewage treatment facilities through refusal to issue construction permits, and subsequent citations for not meeting a specifically designated procedural schedule.

Robertson explained Tuesday night that the Jan. 4 meeting will involve consideration of the size of the plant because the EPA now questions the need of a 23 million gallon per day design. Federal and state EPA officials informed the city earlier that the closing of the Corn Sweeteners plant resulted in a reduction of 5 million gallons per day in treatment requirements.

Granite City's present primary treatment plant has a capacity of 20 million gallons daily. Prior to the shutdown of Corn Sweeteners, the plant had died from 8 to 10 million gallons daily.

Alderman Sam Whither suggested Tuesday night that the city emphasize to EPA authorities that the discharge of water from Granite City Steel Co. eventually could be turned into city facilities after Horseshoe Lake becomes part of a new state park. Granite City Steel now discharges large quantities of water each day into Horseshoe Lake.

poet to have to go to court with anyone, especially Granite City," he added.

He said he can show the city aldermen "we have considered enough of the city's problems that we can say this will be a benefit to Granite City." He said all of the construction will be done by the state, not by the levee district, but with operating agreements from the levee district.

The Dobrey slough also will be cleaned and widened so that it can be used as a "holding pond" for water when the rain fall is more than the pump can remove. The clearing operation will begin at Maryville Road and will continue to the south end of the slough where a pit will be dug from which the pump will take the water.

He said an area has been reserved around the slough for the ponding area and the city will turn over the area to the state for construction in that area.

"Agreements with the city give the state the authority to take court action against anyone building there. We think we have that locked up legally so that no one can encroach on the holding pond area," Gullou explained.

When the water is standing in the slough, the pump will be going full-time until the slough is pumped dry, he said.

The slough is dry, the pump automatically will turn off until water begins collecting, then it will turn on again, he explained, adding that the pump at the other end of the sewer, which forces the water into the slough, also would be regulated automatically by the level of the water in the sewer.

At present, when Nameoki Ditch is full, the Ames Avenue sewer bubbles out along Pontoon Road. The sewer is just what it should be," the engineer said, and added that the 4,500 gallon-per-minute pump at the Nameoki Ditch will tend to pull the water through the sewer much faster than it would otherwise.

He estimated the pump will increase the output of the sewer by 5,000 gallons-per-minute while the Dobrey Slough sewer would only increase input to the sewer by 1,000 gallons per minute.

He is rendering a substantial benefit to the output of this sewer," Gullou stated.

There were some objections to the plan by Granite City aldermen that the Nameoki Ditch is filled to capacity during heavy rains, but Gullou said studies by his department have shown that the output of the sewer under this plan will not cause the ditch to overflow after the Horseshoe Lake gates have been completed.

Lionel Portell, Granite City street superintendent, commented that the pump at Nameoki Ditch could not be set to operate only when

HITS POST NEAR LEVEE

An auto operated by Dennis Cooper, 18, Rural Route One, Box 1221, sustained damage estimated at $300 when the vehicle struck a post while turning from the Chain of Rocks Canal levee road onto Chautau Slough Road at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday.

The sewer was filled because the sewer is never full at the outlet, even when it is backed up in other sections.

Gullou agreed and said the level will be adjusted by the state after the system becomes operational to allow the maximum benefit.

He urged those who have fought so hard to get the Dobrey Slough improvement to keep up their fight. He said that with pressure, a permanent drainage project can be completed in about two and one-half years.

He said the state government must be kept aware of problems here and the St. Louis office of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers constantly must be reminded to keep Dobrey Slough a priority project.

Congressional hearings on drainage will be held in Washington, D.C., in May and representatives of the local municipalities, the levee districts and citizens' groups should plan to attend.

Three major drainage plans are being studied for the American Bottoms, he said. The first is to divert Dobrey and County Ditch water into Long Lake, then into Horseshoe Lake, and then into the Mississippi River through a new ditch south of Granite City Steel Co., he said.

The second is to divert water from Long Lake north onto Route 203 and Interstate 270 into a diversion canal and then into the Chain of Rocks Canal.

The third is to "beef up the existing pumping stations" and add more water to the present flow from Long Lake into Horseshoe Lake and through the Cahokia Canal into the Mississippi River.

The answer can come within three to five years if we can keep the pressure on the Corps of Engineers. This thing has been kicked around like a dead dog for 15 years that I'm aware of," Gullou stated.

William "Mike" Ebersold of Venice, former levee board president and a trustee, told those present, "This is the first step to help your homes. You've never been able to even start before. Now you're moving. I just hope that no one puts their foot in the way."

City Clears Way for Shop Center Complex

A plan to use a holding pond as a solution for stormwater drainage problems in development of a $2 million shopping complex at Nameoki and Pontoon roads was approved in principle by the Granite City Council Tuesday night, preventing abandonment of the project by its developers.

Although no detailed agreement was submitted for council action in Tuesday's session, council members voted unanimously to approve the holding pond plan as an alternative to an earlier proposal in which the city had been asked to share $700 of the cost of a $150,000 sewer line that would have drained the shopping area into the Nameoki drainage canal.

The council's action is expected to clear the way for construction of a shopping center complex that will house a Schmuck's food market, a Car's Department Store, a Walgreen Drug store and other shops in an area immediately adjoining the new K-Mart store already under construction at 3700 Nameoki Road.

Stormwater drainage problems have beset both the K-Mart and Schmuck's-Carp's projects. The council's action would approve a holding pond system of drainage for the K-Mart store, but the developers of the Schmuck's-Carp's project preferred construction of a stormwater drain line paralleling Ames Avenue to the Nameoki ditch.

Golden & Co. of Kansas City, Mo., developers and financiers of the Schmuck's-Carp's project said such a drainage line would cost $150,000 and asked the city to share half the cost, with the developers advancing the money and the city agreeing to pay its share as funds became available.

This plan brought protests from some city council members who said that other business enterprises had solved their own problems without asking the city for anything.

Approval of the holding pond plan was approved unanimously by all 14 members of the council attending Tuesday night's session although Alderman Sam Whither had objected that engineers at first said there wasn't "room for both K-Mart and this project in a holding pond," and Alderman Roy Poulos asked if it would be like this wouldn't breed mosquitoes and stagnation."

Alderman Gerald Parney made the motion to approve the plan and program. He said a detailed agreement could be brought in later.

Mayor Donald Parney said that "the people financing this project are in town tonight waiting for an answer. If this plan is turned down, they plan to take the project somewhere else. They need an answer tonight."

A holding pond would retain surface stormwater drainage during heavy rains until the regular flow was carried off through city drainage lines. The water from the holding pond then would be released into the sewer lines after they were clear, thus preventing a flooding condition at the peak of the rainfall.

Alderman Clyde Boyd asked if the holding ponds for the K-Mart store and for the Schmuck's-Carp's development would be separate units. Mayor Parney said that they would.

City Gets $40,500 Bid on Old Landfill; Delay Sale

An appraisal report estimating at $44,000 the value of 22 acres of land formerly used by Granite City as a landfill was received by the City Council Tuesday night along with the single bid offering the city $40,500 for the tract.

The appraisal was made by Morris Realty Co. at the city's request after an offer to buy the land was presented to the city last month by the Lueder's Agency. The single bid received by the council Tuesday night was submitted by the Lueder's firm.

At the time the Lueder's firm sought to acquire the land, council members decided that an appraisal should be made and that bids should be called before any sale was made.

No action was taken by council members Tuesday night. Instead, the appraisal and bid offer were referred to the Finance Committee for a recommendation at the council's Jan. 2 meeting.

Varied reactions by council members followed the opening of the single bid.

Mayor Donald Partney said he believed the city should sell the land located along Route 8 at the south of Eagle Park Acres — and a "farmhouse" the money for a new firehouse.

Alderman Gerald Partney said that "if we sell it I am going to move that it be used for a new police station."

Walter Nomm, alderman of Ward Five, suggested that the money be used to provide drainage facilities on a tract of land owned by Herbert and Martha Bischoff which has been recommended for annexation to Granite City. Nomm said this tract would provide excellent opportunity for development if drainage is provided. Claude Green, alderman of Ward Four, suggested that the city "hang on to this land" because it is an ideal location for an incinerator. Green said the trash disposal problem is such that the city is going to have to turn to an incinerator program soon.

The council Tuesday night approved recommendations of the City Plan Commission at a discussion in which Alderman Nomm was defeated by a 12 to 2 vote in an attempt to grant a special use permit to Richard Allen and Robert Francis for operation of law offices at 2943 and 2945 Madison Ave.

The plan commission recommended approval of a petition to annex the Bischoff tract to Granite City, subject to drainage provisions, but reported it had deferred action on the permit request for a discussion in which law offices until more information was provided.

The commission report also recommended denial of rezoning of three lots of property at 2235 Pontoon Road at the request of Richard Buehner, from an R-1 single family dwelling to a C-1 Commercial district.

A letter by Robert Krost, chief engineer of Highway District 8 at Fairview Heights, notified the council that the State Department of Transportation has approved a revised cost estimate of $170,591 for improvement of Johnson Road from Franklin Avenue to Lindell Boulevard.

The appointment by Mayor Partney of Sharon Wickham as a typist in the Civil Defense office was confirmed. She succeeds Karen Johnson who has resigned effective Jan. 1.

Induction Ceremony For Four Rotarians

Granite City Rotarians on Tuesday inducted as new members of the club Ed Edwards, Bob Miller, James Davidson and Steve Bristol. Each gave a biographical report.

Glenn Abernethy, membership chairman, showed a slide program prepared by Rotary International. President Richard West, who presided, presented a Granite City Rotary banner to an Athens, Tex., Rotarian, Walter Cook.

The gathering of 35 was told that the Jan. 2 program will be a photographic review by Rotarian Homer Huber of his 1972 trip to the South Pacific.

Rosenburg Appointed To Police Department

Appointment of David Rosenberg, 2284 Cleveland Blvd., as a probationary patrolman by the Granite City Board of Fire and Police Commissioners was confirmed by the city Council Tuesday night.

He will begin his new duties on Monday, filling a vacancy in the department created with the appointment of Patrolman Roy Koberra to the new post of police-community relations officer.

Rosenburg, 23, is a native of Granite City and attended local schools. He has been employed by Glik's Department Stores and is enrolled in the law enforcement program at Bellevue Area College. He also attended Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville for two years. He is single.

FIGHTING TO SURVIVE the early rounds of the wrestling tournament here yesterday was Warrior Kerry Johnson (119), who lost more than his head protector in this second-round match with Joe Hart of Hazelwood. Hart was the winner by a 6-3 decision, despite the determined efforts of the Granite City cheerleaders in the background.

SIX POINTS for the Warriors are called out as the referee slaps his arm onto the mat and his feet fly into the air here Wednesday. On top of the pin is Granite City's John Niebur (112) and with his shoulders to the mat is Tom Dixon of Belleville East.

In the sixth and seventh slots are veteran senior shooting ace Denny Thorneburg and the Southeast Missouri State Indians, 89-84. "I'm proud of the boys' ability to play on the road," Dudley says. "It really is tough to win on a foreign court."

Venice Downs Steeleville, Sandoval, Hopes for Title

The Venice Red Devils are well on their way to the championship of the Freeburg tourney.

They won their second round match, 74-59 against Steeleville last night, 74-59. The Venice cagers won in the opening round Tuesday 84-51 over Sandoval.

Now 8-0 overall, the Devils face Central of Breese today at 8:30 p.m. If they maintain their winning streak, they will play the winner of the Waterloo vs. Lebacon game for the title at 8:30 p.m. Friday.

If the Devils lose tonight, they will take place in the third-place in the third-place game at 6:30 p.m. Friday.

"We have been winning but we are not playing up to our potential by a long way," Head Venice Coach Bill Offendorf said today. "Our offense needs more punch on the floor."

"Central will be a tough game—the toughest yet. They have a good team and they have 6-9, 6-6 and 6-3 height. I have seen them play four times and they are good shooters.

"They got as far as the state sectional finals last year," Offendorf noted.

Quarter scores last night saw Venice lead 17-14, 35-26 and 53-38. Each team scored 21 points in the final quarter.

Devil Ron Henry was top pointmaker in the game with 22. Steeleville's Chadden and Beckborn each had 16.

Other Devils scoring were Cornelius Wiley 19, Ray Mosby 10, Dan Severs 15 and Tony Sitton 8.

Venice led in field goals 35-22 and fouls 17-16. From the charity line, it was Steeleville 15 and the Devils four.

An upset happened in the tourney action Wednesday as Lebacon topped the defending champion, Lovejoy of Brooklyn, 52-51. Last year, Lovejoy, defeated Venice in the championship game and many fans expected the two teams to meet again.

Venice has won the Freeburg

'Tree of Lights' Fund Within $242 of Goal

More strands of lights were added to the Salvation Army's "Tree of Lights" in Memorial Park yesterday, although a further $242 still is needed to reach the $2,000 goal.

Earlier this week, Salvation Army Captain Ronald Kerley expressed optimism that contributions received by mail would push the fund over $2,000, the minimum amount required to finance 500 Christmas food baskets and other items distributed Friday to Quad-City families in need.

Mail deliveries, however, were suspended today throughout the nation in respect to the late former President John F. Kennedy, whose funeral will take place at 3 p.m. at Independence, Mo.

Members of four local groups volunteered their time during the past holiday weekend to ring bells at the Salvation Army kettles sites.

The Madison High Brass Choir, soliciting from passers-by in Madison Friday, collected $10 and the Mexican Honorary Commission, stationed in Granite City the same evening, added $195 to the annual drive.

Granite City Optimists collected $130 at bell-ringing stations Thursday evening and the Tri-City Shrine Club bell-ringers contributed the highest amount during any "Tree of Lights" campaign Saturday when its membership accumulated $1,313 in the "red-kettles."

In addition to 550 gift baskets of food and 2,000 toys for young children, the Salvation Army provided 337 school-age youngsters with coats or shoes and offered clothing items as special pre-holiday gifts.

More than 1,000 names were cleared through the Salvation Army headquarters and 81 families were "adopted" by other local groups, Capt. Kerley said. Additional donors of $25 or more to the "Tree of Lights" include:

System to Control High Blood Pressure Studied

A psychologist at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville is working with biofeedback to help patients decrease high blood pressure.

"Biofeedback is simply the monitoring of a person's physiological functions and displaying the information to the patient," says Kenneth Kleinman. "Traditionally it has been believed a person cannot voluntarily control certain functions controlled by the autonomic nervous system, like blood pressure and heart rate. But there have been indications these functions can be controlled with feedback."

Granite City PRESS-RECORD
Page 8 Thur., Dec. 28, 1972

—that is, if the person is made aware of what his heart rate or blood pressure is on a moment-to-moment basis."

In conjunction with clinical psychologist Herbert Goldman at Jefferson Barracks VA Hospital, Kleinman is using a blood pressure monitoring device to track a patient's blood pressure moment by moment. The patient receives feedback in the form of a light and a tone whenever his blood pressure decreases.

"We've found that with this kind of feedback, some people can lower their blood pressure by as much as 25 millimeters of mercury within an hour," Kleinman said.

Kleinman said that while significant decreases in blood pressure can be accomplished within a laboratory session, the decreases do not seem to last beyond a week or two. Therefore, he hopes to work with patients daily to learn if blood pressure can be reduced over a longer period of time. Also being explored are devices that a patient could wear to monitor his blood pressure throughout the day, outside a hospital.

The general public should not consider these techniques to be accepted therapeutic tools," Kleinman said. "They're still experimental. But researchers all over the world are studying the therapeutic potential of biofeedback."

He said by using biofeedback, researchers have had some success in controlling problems such as epileptic seizures and cardiac abnormalities that were thought to be involuntary.

Kleinman himself is working with feedback from the electrical activity of muscles to retrain people who have suffered damage to their nervous systems resulting in partial paralysis.

Using a device which measures the electrical activity of muscles, Kleinman and colleagues Carl Hermansmeyer and Alan Amato improved muscle control by "approximately 300 to 400%" in a patient with an 11-year-old brain injury who had only limited control of his leg movements. The patient is not completely cured, but Kleinman said after two months of treatment with biofeedback, the patient showed more improvement than he had in the previous 11 years.

Kleinman said much of the evidence from research with biofeedback supports a theory of his that distinguishes between the "involuntary" physiological processes controlled by the autonomic nervous system and the "voluntary" processes controlled by the brain and spinal cord are mostly artificial.

"A person who is told to raise his arm can raise it and see that it's being raised at the same time," Kleinman said. "But that same person can't lower his blood pressure—he doesn't have conscious feedback. Some researchers are asking now 'What would happen if a person got conscious feedback on what his blood pressure or heart rate is doing?' It appears that, with such feedback, so-called involuntary functions are brought under conscious, or voluntary, control."

A. O. Smith's Sales Up But Profits Down

Milwaukee—A. O. Smith Corp. will report higher sales in 1972, although profits will be off for the year, L. B. Smith, chairman and chief executive officer, has told security analysts.

He said sales are expected to climb to about $490 million, a record, from $457 million last year, while profits are expected to be between $5,500,000 and $8,800,000, compared with $12,800,000 (before an extraordinary loss) in 1971.

On a per share basis, Smith said, earnings in 1972 are expected to be between $1.90 and $2.00, compared with $2.61 in 1971.

In the fourth quarter, sales will be approximately $128 million, compared with $112 million in the same period last year.

Fourth-quarter earnings will be between $1,475,000 and $1,975,000, or 20 cents to 40 cents per share. In the fourth quarter of 1971, earnings were $3,552,000, or 81 cents per share.

Smith said losses at the company's elevator subsidiaries and at a line pipe manufacturing affiliate were the principal reasons for the earnings decline for the year.

He estimated that if the elevator and line pipe businesses had been performing at the same levels as last year, A. O. Smith's earnings in 1972 would have been $1.05 to $1.10 per share higher.

Of this difference, 15 cents is due to the A. O. Smith Corp. Of Texas line pipe operation, with the balance attributable to losses at the company's elevator subsidiaries.

The 15 cents per share difference in the Texas operation, Smith said, is the swing between 1971 and 1972. A. O. Smith's share of the actual losses incurred by the Texas affiliate in 1972 amounted to 21 cents per share.

Smith pointed out that the company has announced it will sell its half of A. O. Smith Corp. Of Texas to Armco Steel Corp. effective Nov. 30, 1972.

Smith said strikes by construction workers which plagued the entire elevator industry during a large portion of 1972 cost the company about 40 cents per share, compared to 1971, while a lack of tax carry back provisions in Canada added 20 cents to the problem, with operational difficulties accounting for another 30 cents of the difference.

Most other parts of the company performed well in 1972, Smith said.

The Consumer Products division and a subsidiary, A. O. Smith Harvestore Products, Inc., turned in record results, while the Automotive and Electric

Space Shuttle Foes in Congress Increasing

By FRANK MACOMBER
Military-Aerospace Writer
Capitol News Service

On its face, the new U.S. Senate in the upcoming 96th Congress seems likely to be more critical of the nation's space and military programs than even the often reluctant upper chamber of the departed 92nd Congress.

For example, only one of the dozen senators being replaced in January voted consistently against space proposals in the last two years and only three against some proposed defense spending.

In contrast, while their votes have yet to be recorded, at least six of the newly elected senators have been identified as liberals — the political ideology which tends to oppose defense and space appropriations.

Despite the probability of increased opposition, majorities for both the space and defense programs still exist in the Senate.

For example, the multi-billion-dollar manned space shuttle project was approved by the Senate last spring, 61 to 21.

The antiballistic missile system, Safeguard, which barely survived a 50-50 tie vote three years ago and allowed Vice President Spiro Agnew to break the deadlock in favor of Safeguard, easily passed a year ago, 64-21.

A series of other proposals to cut new weapons development spending was defeated last summer, including a move by Sen. George McGovern to chop the fiscal 1973-74 defense budget by about $4 billion across the board.

The McGovern motion was rejected, 59-33.

Of concern to federal space agency officials, in addition to the election of at least half a dozen new lawmakers believed to be opposed to post-Apollo space projects, is the possibility of land use proposals of Sen. Walter Mondale, D-Minn.

Mondale, sometimes described as having a "Kosmos" image, consistently has been the Senate's loudest voice in protest against the space shuttle, destined for maiden earth orbital flights in 1976 if Congress continues to fund its early stages.

Mondale, heralded already by Sen. Hubert Humphrey, D-Minn., as the Democratic most promising presidential candidate and Sen. Edward Kennedy's most serious contender for the nomination, also was an uncompromising foe of the U.S. supersonic transport program, killed by Congress last year.

His constant thesis during debates over space spending has been that most of the money spent in space should be channeled here on earth to help solve the nation's more pressing social and environmental problems.

Space agency officials fear Mondale once again will join with McGovern and Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., to enlist more anti-space senators in a coalition to oppose the anticipated gradually climbing level of space shuttle appropriations.

Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., is due to become chairman of the Senate Aeronautical and Space Sciences Committee, succeeding Sen. Clinton Anderson, D-N.M., who this year did not seek reelection after serving 24 years in the Senate.

A former Air Force secretary, Symington is not likely to oppose U.S. space efforts, but he is not as friendly to the space agency as Anderson was.

The New Mexico lawmaker was one of the earliest champions of an all-out space race with the Soviet Union.

On the House side, the prospects for lower chamber support of space programs appear to be on the upturn.

Rep. Olin E. Teague, D-Tex., has agreed to give up his House Veterans Affairs Committee chairmanship to become the new boss of the House Science and Astronautics Committee.

That would give the space program perhaps the most persuasive and respected House spokesman it has had.

Teague's designation as chairman is expected to be ratified in January by the House Democratic caucus which he heads.

The veteran Texas legislator had withheld his decision to shift committee chairmanships until after the Nov. 7 elections assured continued Democratic control of the House.

Teague would succeed lame duck Rep. George P. Miller, D-Calif., defeated for re-election in the California June primary.

Miller has been Science-Astronautics Committee chairman since 1961.

Teague has been a vigorous champion of U.S. space projects since they began with the first manned Mercury flights 11 years ago.

He has been a member of the Science-Astronautics Committee since it was created in 1961 and chairman of the manned space flight subcommittee for many years.

TWO MEN ARRESTED

Donald O. Kuehnelt, 34, with addresses listed at 2427 Madison Ave. and 3008 Epton Ave., and Quincy E. Riley, 36, of Brentwood, Mo., were arrested on battery charges at the Madison Avenue address on counter-complaints signed by each this week. Kuehnelt was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital for treatment of injuries sustained in a fight, police reported.

HOUSE BURGLARIZED

Several musical instruments were stolen from the basement in a burglary at the home of Cleasie Douglas, 2116 Ohio Ave., this week. Included were a $200 bass amplifier, a $200 bass guitar, two sets of drums valued at $260 and a microphone valued at $10.

TRUCK STRIKES POLE

ARRESTED FOR CONDUCT

Three More GC Steel Employees Retire

A Granite Cityan, Gerald "Jerry" Fisher, 3908 Buxton Ave., is the longest-service employee to retire during the past month at Granite City Steel. He was with the firm for more than 45 years.

There were two other retirees from the Quad-Cities area. They are Evelyn Maxwell, 65, of 3111 Yale Drive, and William "Bill" Morris, 65, of 1700 Delmar Ave.

Fisher, 65, retired Nov. 30 as Basic Oxygen Furnace production clerk. He worked in the old tin mills when he started with the company, transferred to the open hearth department in 1938, and went to the BOF department when it began operations early next summer.

William "Bill" Morris retired Nov. 30 as a yard maintenance lift truck driver after 22 years of service with the company. He spent his entire GCS career in the yard maintenance department. Morris has no special retirement plans, but says he "just wants to enjoy taking it easy."

Also retiring from the company at the end of November were Tom Walker, 54, of Collinsville.

Evelyn Maxwell retired at the end of November from the GCS sales department after 17½ years of service. She started with the St. Louis sales office in April 1955 and moved to the Granite City office in 1959.

Mrs. Maxwell is a widow, and has a son and a grandchild. She

To Display Auto License Plates

Midnight Thursday, Feb. 15, will be the deadline for displaying 1973 motor vehicle license plates on all vehicles licensed on a calendar year. Secretary of State John W. Lewis has announced.

Lewis emphasized, "This is a display deadline, not an application deadline, and the plates must be on the vehicle by the Feb. 15 date. Having submitted an application, carrying the plates in the car or having them at home will not be in compliance."

The Feb. 15 date was established with concurrence from Secretary of State-elect Michael Hovatt.

Secretary Lewis advised motorists planning to apply by mail to submit their applications no later than Jan. 25 to be assured of having plates to meet the deadline.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD
Thurs., Dec. 28, 1972 Page 9

License plates are third class mail, and that, plus the time required for processing applications, may mean a period of two or three weeks between receipt of applications in the secretary of state's office and arrival of the plates at the owner's home or business.

License plates may be purchased over the counter at the three motor vehicle facilities in Chicago, two locations in Springfield and at more than 200 banks throughout the state.

Comment and Analysis

Dec. 28, 1972

President Harry Truman, 1884-1972

Decisive Leadership, Vision, Determination Recalled

Comment by President Richard M. Nixon—President Harry S. Truman will be remembered as one of the most courageous Presidents in our history.

Mr. Truman led the nation and the world through a critical period with exceptional vision and determination. Our hopes today for a generation of peace rest in large measure on the firm foundations that he laid.

His policies after World War II helped to rebuild devastated nations and to protect democracy.

Recognizing the new threat to peace that had emerged from the ashes of war, he stood boldly against it with his extension of aid to Greece and Turkey in 1947. And the "Truman Doctrine" thus established was crucial to the defense of liberty in Europe and the world.

In launching the Marshall Plan, he began the most far-sighted and most generous act of international rebuilding ever undertaken.

With his characteristically decisive action in Korea, he made possible the defense of peace and freedom in Asia.

President Truman was a fighter who was at his best when the going was toughest. Like all political leaders, he had his friends and his opponents.

But friends and opponents alike were unanimous in respecting him for his enormous courage and for the spirit that saw him through whatever the odds.

Whether in a political campaign or making the great decisions in foreign policy, they recognized and admired him—in a description he himself might have appreciated the most—as a man with " guts."

It is with affection and respect that a grateful nation now says farewell to "The Man from Missouri"—our thirty-third President, Harry S. Truman.

Qualities of a Great Leader—Forthrightness, Courage

Comment by Vice-President Spiro T. Agnew—Among the talents that Harry Truman brought to the Presidency were two indispensable qualities of a great leader—forthrightness and courage.

Nation Is Richer in Spirit Because Mr. Truman Lived

Comment by Governor Richard B. Ogilvie of Illinois—President Truman personified the inherent greatness of the common man whose good sense and determination are equal to any challenge.

Truly Great President Understood Mood of the People

Comment by Illinois Governor-elect Daniel Walker—President Truman was a great American. His stature in history will continue to grow.

He will be remembered as one of our truly great Presidents. He also knew and understood the mood of a nation and its people as have few other political leaders.

All of us—and most of all, the people of America—will miss him.

A Down-to-Earth, Courageous and Resolute Statesman

Comment by Melvin Price, Member of Congress, 23rd Illinois Congressional District—The death on Dec. 26 of former President Harry Truman takes one of the world's foremost statesmen and leaders from us.

The American people knew where they stood with this great man because he was straight with them. The people believed in this down-to-earth, courageous, resolute man from Missouri.

Of the visitors to my office who view pictures of our Presidents of the past 40 years, 90% say Harry Truman was the greatest.

Difficult Decisions Earned Special Niche in History

Comment by William D. Stuehl, Republican State Central Committee Chairman, 23rd Congressional District—The passage of time has shown that President Truman will have carved for himself a very special niche in the history of America and the free world.

He served at a time when the courage to make difficult decisions was as necessary as any time in our history. He did not fail the test, as shown by the Marshall Plan and his action to prevent Communist takeovers in Greece and Korea.

His record in the area of foreign affairs was, on balance, a record of courage and achievement—and was in the best interests of our country.

Tremendous Respect for Former Leader of the Nation

Comment by Nelson Hagenauer, chairman of the Madison County Board—There is tremendous respect for the recent fight for his life. Mr. Truman lived a long and good life. He was great for us.

Late President a Fighter Who Was Great for America

Comment by Clyde Belcher, Madison County Republican chairman—President Truman always was a fighter and a very gutsy man. He showed that in the recent fight for his life. Mr. Truman lived a long and good life. He was great for us.

Thirty-Third President Contributed Much to the U.S.

Comment by Miss Eulalia Hotz, county clerk of Madison County—President Truman always was down to earth. He never hesitated to admit any mistake he might have made.

His death leaves us very sad. He continued to contribute so much to the country even after he gave up the President's chair.

Plan Would End Piecemeal Appropriations by Congress

By LESTER BELL
Copy News Service

Washington—Rep. Paul Findley believes that if Congress stops frittering away time on piecemeal appropriations it can control deficit spending.

Fiscal sanity is the overriding issue of the coming 93rd Congress, the Pittsfield Republican is convinced, and he proposes to come down hard on this theme, he fears the consequences of the huge deficits, which have been averaging $25 billion a year for the last three years.

He praised House Speaker Carl Albert for prompt action in naming House members to the temporary joint committee which is to recommend methods by which Congress can exercise greater control over both expenditures and receipts.

The committee was instructed to report to Congress by Feb. 15.

Findley said if the Senate is not ready with its committee members, "The House should start without the Senate."

The matter is so pressing, in his opinion, it should be resolved in the 93rd Congress and not go over to the 94th.

He has proposed a rules change, and will offer it again with slight modifications.

"We require that each year the House adopt a budget... before beginning the appropriations process."

The House has 13 appropriations committees and each of their subcommittees "is a power to itself." The appropriations process drags on for months, often well into the fiscal year which the outlays are being authorized.

"Under my proposal," he explained, "they would have to face up to the appropriations

1972—As Seen from a Prison Cell

Among the publications which find their way to our desk is the Menard Times, which calls itself "America's foremost prison newspaper." It placed first in 1965, 1969 and 1970 in the American Prison Press Newspaper Contest.

What do we have in common with it? Not much, but it is a member of the same group as the Illinois Press Association and the Southern Illinois Editorial Association.

It is prepared entirely by inmates at the Chester, Ill., institution. And the writing quality is higher than might be expected.

A fine example is "1972 in Review," written by the Menard Times editor, published in that paper's holiday issue. Here is how the year just ending looked from behind prison bars:

Perhaps the biggest news story of the year was President Nixon's trip to China. When the announcement was made that he would make the journey to Peking, it was a political bombshell. Since the fact of the trip has not lost its impact.

For over two decades, virtually the only contact between the U. S. and mainland China had been in hostile charges and countercharges, along with an ultimatum here and there.

The President's decision to visit China restored a giant amount of prestige to his name, and it also presented him as a top diplomat.

"The impact of the trip was to solidify his position with the American people to the extent that he gained tremendous support with voters."

The great importance of the trip lies in the fact that American foreign policy may be coming out of the darkness.

For years, we labored under the impression that if we ignored Red China it would just go away. We refused to think of it as world power, and we paid the price of that mistake.

Now, perhaps, we can start being a little more realistic in our dealings with the Far East.

Of secondary importance news was the China trip, just the way the President's mission to Moscow, however, was perhaps even more stunning diplomatically.

For it was with this trip that other countries seemed to relax into a newfound security in our intentions and aims.

England, and especially France, became a bit more satisfied with the U. S.

And the way in Germany for a restoration of dealings between East and West Berlin.

During the past decade, the Viet in Vietnam has gone through more ups and downs than a gambler's luck. Special policy changes than an insurance company, and worn out more personalities than a telephone.

Do you remember Madam Nhu? She was the modern day "dragon lady" who ruled the Viet social life of the early 1960s and dictated the country's morals while her husband and General Diem drew U. S. involvement ever further into the war.

It was especially tough on the Buddhist monks.

When one of these monks set himself ablaze in Saigon's city square, it paved the way for the Viet regime, her caustic comment was, "What a disgusting barbecue."

Today she lives in a villa in Italy, where she has lived since her husband and Diem were slain in a military coup.

When a member of the U. S. Army, Special Forces, came against the Viet regime, he was called a "barbecue."

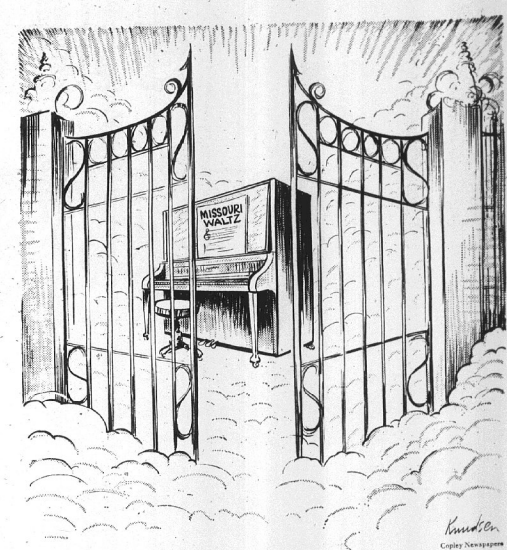

He wrote a song about the brave men of "The Green Berets."

In the patriotic days of 1965, the song sold a million copies, and Sgt. Sadler became a star.

When he got out of service, Sadler thought he would continue to ride his rocket to fame by becoming a folk singer. It didn't work out that way.

It turned out he was a very good singer, and it seems the Green Berets were not so bad after all.

Today, former Sgt. Sadler is a private businessman. The list goes on, Major Don where we are getting suspicious of the word change itself.

The liberal explosion of the 1960s has started to bog down. People are once again leaning to more conservative approach.

It is not that they don't want change, or improvement, but rather that they would like to take a slower and calmer walk to the future, instead of proceeding at the breakneck pace of the past decade.

Basically, the American people had a clear choice in this election.

It was not so much, however, the choice between one man and another, as it was between a choice between two different philosophies and another.

It will be interesting to observe the next four years.

The President must step down after this term, and it is doubtful that McGovern will run again. The field will be wide open.

During the past year, sports attractions were still gobbling up the share of the consumer's entertainment dollar.

Movies were making a comeback although under questionable circumstances.

Television seems to have reached an impasse except for a couple of notable exceptions.

In 1972, it was becoming increasingly evident that spectator sports are emerging as the number one pastime of more and more Americans.

Whether you sit in front of the tube, listen in on the radio, or personally attend the games, you are among a growing number of alert and motionless people.

The general public no longer participates in active sports or games.

We just sit and watch. And we must watch only the best.

High school teams play to half-empty stands. Small colleges field teams that scrimp along in lonesome isolation. The minor leagues are a joke.

Nowadays we can see the top professional teams in all sports going by with a dial.

We get our exercise walking back and forth, between the game and the refrigerator. We are getting lazier every year.

The movie industry got back into the thick of the fight for the entertainment dollar by going for violence; 1972 found the producers getting away from sex.

Now, the code word is violence. The more, the better.

There are exceptions. ("The Summer of '42") but they are few and far between.

Over and over again, I hear the same complaint from inmates, coming out of the movie theater.

"Man, I wish they would get a good movie once in a while."

Almost every creation that the movie industry turns out these days is filled with brutality, violence and blood.

This type of entertainment plays on man's basest emotions. If this is truly what the public wants, then we have come to a sad state in human history.

Television in 1972 certainly left a lot to be desired. Outside of a show called "All in the Family," a special here and there, and the comedy of "Sanford and Son," it has become a wasteland.

But its hypnotic power over our lives goes on and on.

And now even the news programs have lost their dignity. They have reached the point when it is just enough to present the news.

Now they have to entertain you with it.

"Hello, I'm John, and I've got news for you. And then there's Sam with all the sports, and of course little Mary with the weather."

"Sam, how about the sports old buddy?"

"Fluh, oh, ye, sports. Well let me see, I'd say our boss is the

The FORUM

Local and state law enforcement will be upgraded and become more self-sufficient, while federal agencies will become more relegated to documentation and research type of work.

Prisons will turn more and more toward education as their most valuable tool in dealing with the inmate.

Long hair will start going out of style. The move will be to shorter looks for men.

The ladies will probably follow suit.

Glad to hear that it has had some reaction—favorably and not. It does show that folks are vitally interested in the pros and cons.

Babson Report

management nor the consumer really benefits or is happy. Hence, we are hopeful that the pending labor negotiations in pattern-setting fields will be resolved with only moderate price inflation and without business stoppages.

If inflation should be held to a walk in the early months of the new year, there is a good chance that controls will be modified and eased.

Although it would be unrealistic to expect total cessation of anti-inflation controls in 1973, even some relaxation would have a positive impact on public confidence.

Overall, we are hopeful that price and wage hikes can be kept to around 6% in the coming year, leaving the normal productivity gain of 3% to 3.5% per annum as a partially counterbalancing influence.

The Administration itself will be in the forefront of the inflation battle. While it would be overly ambitious to look for a balanced federal budget in either fiscal 1973 or fiscal 1974 (portions of both fall in the calendar year 1973), the Nixon Administration will aim for a moderate budget deficit by imposing funds allocated for certain purposes.

Industrial Production

Allowing for a reasonable labor climate with some easing of the deficit, the staff of Babson's Reports feels that industrial production can post a gain of 5% in 1973 over the 1972 average.

This would be in terms of physical volume of output and not subject to inflationary factors. This rate of increase would amount to somewhat less than that registered during 1972.

On the other hand, the increase in industrial activity should be spread over a broader base in terms of industries participating.

There should also be some easing in leadership. For example, the production of automobiles and trucks which did yeoman's work in pulling the economy upward these past two years may well level off, but the hitherto laggard capital-goods sector will come on strong.

Other lines which are expected to contribute to the upped pace in industrial production include paper and pulp; containers, instruments and controls, machine tools, apparel, and both military and consumer electronics.

Gross National Product

It is the opinion of the Babson staff that through the combination of anticipated higher prices and increased output, the nation's 1973 Gross National Prospects for 1973 hinge so importantly upon the inflation threat that an early examination of this subject seems appropriate.

There are two types of inflation, monetary and price.

In trying to pull the economy out of its recent recession, the monetary authorities opened the spigot and increased the money supply. They accomplished their objective, and their recent actions have been more moderate.

In 1973, therefore, we can look for the monetary officials to "lean against the wind" whenever it becomes necessary to squelch any fresh thrust from inflationary forces.

But unless price (and wage) inflation commences to slip out of control, it is not likely that the severe tightening of money and credit which precipitated the 1968-69 credit crunch will be repeated.

This does not mean we have put inflation entirely at rest. Some price and wage inflation seems unavoidable in the year ahead; the primary question is just how severe it will be.

Determining factors will be the behavior of labor, management and the Administration.

If labor is aggressive and adamant in its demands and if management makes little or no attempt to hold costs to a reasonable rate of increase, the seeds will be sown for a potentially dangerous crop of inflation of the cost-push type.

What Will Inflation Do?

The Babson staff foresees some sharp jawboning by the Administration to convince labor and management that they must co-operate in keeping wage and price increases within tolerable range.

Should such moral suasion fail, however, there is always the last resort:

- Price and wage controls far more restrictive and of greater scope than the partial curbs and guidelines we have been operating under for about a year and a half.

With such stringent anti-inflation curbs, neither labor nor management nor the consumer really benefits or is happy. Hence, we are hopeful that the pending labor negotiations in pattern-setting fields will be resolved with only moderate price inflation and without business stoppages.

from each and every one of us

LARRY, JAN, FRANK, TOM, JERRY, DANNY, PATRICIA, MARVIN, DENNY, TOMMY, LARRY R. and B.C.

Product in current dollars should post an advance approximating 9% over 1972, a gain of about the same magnitude as that seen in the year just ended.

In constant dollars (deflated basis), with 1958 as the base period, we expect a year-to-year increase of about 4% compared with 5.3% for 1972.

This smaller rate of progress points up the fact that general business in 1973 will lack on further gains but not with the same degree of vigor.

Two aspects of economic activity we think will be prominent in enabling 1973 to chalk up a climb in business, and hence in GNP, are in the private sector of the economy. These are personal consumption expenditures and private domestic investments.

However, state and local demand for goods and services in the nation's foreign trade balance, and the unavoidable updating of the national defense capabilities will also lift the GNP.

World Peace and Trade
By the time this Annual Forecast is published, there could already be a cease-fire agreement for the Vietnam war. In any case, such a truce should not be far off.

How long such a cooling-off arrangement will last, however, is indeterminate. We are hopeful that this forward step can be followed by negotiations leading to a permanent peace treaty.

Even if a cease-fire is achieved but fails to hold, any resumption of fighting will presumably take place without American forces. Hopefully, settlement in Vietnam may only part of a favorable peace package which will incorporate agreements to maintain the integrity of all other Southeast Asian nations.

It is the conviction of Babson's Reports that there will be no World War III in 1973. There may well be more internal strife in the emerging nations of Africa and other underdeveloped countries of the world where the climate for leadership is still in a state of flux.

Similar conditions also exist in portions of South and Central America.

It is to be hoped, however, that the expected reduction of U. S. foreign policy and assistance will include a shift back to Latin America in time to stave off serious trouble there.

In the Middle East, no full-scale war is likely in 1973, but the area will unfortunately continue to teeter on the brink of outright conflict.

The commercial transactions achieved between this country and Russia and Red China barely scratch the surface of the trade potential which exists on an international scale.

We forecast an increase in foreign commerce for the United States in the next year, involving more industry groups. Stipendous though the potential may be, we can tap only a tiny fraction of the basic markets. Iron-ore countries simply do not have enough dollar holdings or trade credits.

Sales made on a credit basis require tedious negotiations to establish terms for such transactions.

Eventually, however, the worldwide revamp of the international monetary system will result in some improvement in this situation. But the solution will not come in 1973.

Nonetheless, there should be a better showing in our foreign trade balance and a less horrendous deficit in our annual international balance of payments.

Good Year For Farmers
The step-up in grain exports this past year has stiffened agricultural commodity prices materially, and 1973 is winding up as one of the best years in history for the nation's farmers.

Realized net income could reach $18.8 billion, a total which would outstrip the previous peak of $17 billion reached back in 1967.

Farm income next year should hold near this all-time record level.

Domestic demand for agricultural products will remain strong, while exports are expected to rule on the upside.

Farmers are already "champing at the bit" to start tilling and planting. The farm-equipment market is booming, and demand for fertilizer and seed will be brisk. Farm real estate prices have also strengthened.

Bright Consumer Psychology
All told, the nation's consumers can look forward to a good year in 1973. There will be some dissatisfaction over prices as well as occasional tremors among workers unsettled by labor-management confrontations, but the overall atmosphere will be heartening.

Employment should move above the record rate already achieved during 1972. Already, the "Help Wanted" newspaper sections are reflecting an increase in numbers of job openings.

With the other hand, unemployment will shrink only a trifle from the current 6% of the civilian labor force, reaching the Administration's target of 5.5%.

This is scarcely satisfactory to labor leaders, but it is recognized that it is difficult to reduce jobless totals — even when employment is on the rise if there is a massive influx into the labor force of young people and mothers seeking part-time or full-time work.

And this will be the case during 1973.

As we said earlier, wage rates will climb further in the year ahead. The pattern for raises and fringe benefits for the ensuing three years may well be determined by contracts inked in the key trucking, auto, and construction industries in the new year.

With multi-year agreements usually calling for the lion's share of the overall increase in the first year, American industry will show a significant rise in 1973, tempered somewhat by whatever controls are in effect.

All of this will mean an upward push in both gross and disposable personal incomes.

Speaking of the combination of full employment, soaring wage rates and new highs in personal income will, of course, put some in a spendthrift mood.

For that reason, the staff of Babson's Reports looks for a substantial rise in consumer spending for 1973.

The continuing advance in consumer expenditures will be spurred to some degree by a decline in the rate of savings.

The trend toward putting away a smaller percentage of disposable income has been in evidence since the third quarter of 1971, after hitting a peak in the preceding quarter when consumers channeled 8.6% of their disposable income into savings.

With little change for much reduction in food prices and with consumption per capita still climbing, a fair portion of the increase in personal incomes will go for food and beverages.

Consumers will also spend more for eating away from home.

With new housing starts in 1972 holding up longer than was earlier expected, furniture and home furnishings are likely to remain strong areas of buy-interest.

Purchases of new autos were extremely heavy during the bulk of the past year, and there is no indication that this tendency will soon be reversed.

It should be noted, however, that we look for considerably less of an upward fillip in home

Babson Report . . .

furnishings and auto sales in 1973 than was seen in 1972.
In both instances, it is getting late in the upward phase of the selling cycle. We do expect, however, quite positive gains in consumer spending for leisure-time activities and products, and for apparel and accessories.

Capital Expenditures
Business capital expenditures will help to stimulate the economy during 1973, but not with the same potency as in previous business booms.

It is probable, in fact, that a good chunk of capital spending will be not for increased productive capacity but for items of high social priority.

Most firms will be laying out more money to comply with anti-pollution regulations, and companies in the oil and gas industry will expend huge sums in the search for new reserves.

Major gas distributors are so hard-pressed for fresh supplies of natural gas that they are advancing millions of dollars to help pay for exploration and development costs in exchange for the right to purchase a major part or the entire output of a given area.

All in all, business capital expenditures in 1973 could show a gain just about matching the 10% marked up during the past year.

Interest Rates—Bond Market
Since the consumer will be spending more and business will be building up inventories and pouring out more funds for capital equipment programs, there will inevitably be an upward pressure on interest rates.

But we stress once more that we do not anticipate another traumatic credit crunch such as occurred during the closing years of the 1960s.

The brunt of any interest-rate rise is likely to come at the short end of the money-rate scale, with only a moderate firming of long-term rates. Keep in mind that the total of new housing starts will probably ease a bit in 1973. Moreover, corporations are generally in good financial condition after building up their resources over the past two years with the aid of the investment tax credit.

The Babson staff looks for corporate profits after taxes to go up about 12% in the new year compared with 18% in 1972.

Even this smaller gain, however—coupled with the freeze on corporate dividend disbursements—will enhance business liquidity.

One area of danger in the money-rate picture may be traced to the government's doorstep. The U. S. Treasury is slated for fairly active refinancing in 1973, and the unusual and unexpected tax receipts that have come in during 1972 through overwithholding will not be seen in the new year.

Whether the Treasury's debt-management efforts will pose a problem depends on inflation prospects.

If, as now seems to be increasingly accepted, the general public feels that inflation is being restrained, that inflation is being restrained, projects are likely to occur without undue pressure on interest rates.

Hence, bond prices will probably show sporadic signs of softness in the short to intermediate sectors of the maturity scale.

But on the long-term end prices should be generally well maintained.

In general, 1973 should offer ample opportunity to make selected purchases of bonds and preferred stocks of good quality for investors who need to nail down a fair amount of fixed income from their investment.

Wherever possible, however, some inflation hedge should be sought, even to the point of sacrificing a little income on a portion of investment capital. This part of investment funds can be placed in some attractively priced convertible debentures and convertible preferred stocks.

Bigger Tax Bite?
The outcry for tax reform, the staggering projected federal budget deficit, and the need for help at state and local levels indicate that somewhere along the line in 1973 there must be a heavy tax wallop.

The staff of Babson's Reports does feel, however, that by closing tax loopholes of the more glaring sort and putting some restraints on public spending, the federal government can avoid an outright increase in both corporate and personal income taxes in the coming year, over and above the social security tax hike that is already scheduled to take effect Jan. 1, 1973.

will have three powerful factors in its corner: (1) The element of peace; (2) the generally healthy economic climate; and (3) the decisive hurding of the 1,000 mark by the Dow Jones Industrial Average which is whetting the investment appetite.

These are considerations that tend to stiffen investment confidence substantially.

On the assumptions that corporate profits can post another gain during the coming year and that inflation can be prevented from running away, the Dow Jones Industrial Average can be expected to work into still higher territory over the next twelve months.

The possibility of a move past the 1,100 mark, to even a challenge of the 1,200 level, should not be ruled out.

However, there may not be a smooth jet flight for the stock market, if only because of the overhanging danger of labor troubles which will threaten for virtually the entire year.

Nevertheless, barring an unpredictable major adverse development, many of the stocks which have been in the doldrums will have an opportunity to catch up with the parade.

Among the groups that can give a good account of them are those related to the energy crisis; the reawakening laggards such as steels, chemicals and insurance issues; and those which stand to benefit most from the increase in business capital spending and stepped-up foreign trade.

The intense atmosphere along the labor front in the new year could also attract investors to the stocks of concerns dealing in equipment that would cut back excessive labor costs.

Promising though the stock market outlook may be at this transition period — 1973 into 1974 — the staff of Babson's Reports is of the opinion that investors should employ a healthy measure of conservatism in their investment moves.

Resolve, for instance, not to chase stocks which have already gone whizzing upward; try to operate on a sensible investment game plan.

Give due consideration to the fundamental quality of investment selections and to securing at least a reasonable degree of diversification for your portfolio. In addition, keep on hand some investment reserves at all times.

Seasick Fiance Complains, Lover Goes Boating

By PAT AND MARILYN DAVIS
Copley News Service

Dear Pat and Marilyn:
My fiance loves to sail and has bought a boat. When he told me he was going to purchase one, I was all for it. However, I have changed my mind because the first time out I was so sick I thought I might die.

Alan did not display an iota of sympathy. In fact, he acted disgusted because I was ill. He said he would go alone the next time, and he has done exactly that. He spends all his leisure on the boat while I stay home. I've suggested that I go but his reply is, "I don't intend to have you ruin my day."

What do you think of this situation?

Deborah

Dear Deborah:
I think you should look for a new fiance. Alan sounds thoroughly selfish and unfeeling to me. The sea of matrimony, with one so thoughtless, could be rough indeed.

By the way, if you should go sailing again, ask your doctor for some pills made especially for seasickness.

Freckles

Dear Freckles:
First, be thankful for your blessings. Not every teenager is blessed with a peach and cream complexion.

What about your freckles? Why have them and hate them? Freckles give a fresh wholesome look so don't despair. However, if you must cover them, there are cosmetics available that will help. Personally, I wouldn't try to hide them. Many a beauty has freckles.

Dear Pat and Marilyn:
I want to quit high school. I find it dull, boring, and a waste of time. The teachers give me the feeling that most of them dislike their jobs and wish they were somewhere else. If you want to see a teacher after school, you'll have to be fast on your feet or they're gone.

My parents say I must finish high school in order to make a living. I disagree. I think I could start my own business and make more than some college graduates I know. My Dad did graduate from high school but never attended college. He started his own business and makes plenty of money so why can't he see it my way?

Dan

Dear Dan:
Because he realizes that the requirements for each generation is different. Let me give you a few cold facts. A person with a high school diploma is ten times more likely to secure a position than someone without a diploma. Many positions and trades require that little piece of paper. Write me if your opportunities are limited.

The lifetime earnings of a high school graduate are estimated to be about one-half that of a college grad. A high school dropout would be lower. Figures don't lie. They simply point out what education can do for young people. Listen to your father. He's giving you good advice.

Walker to Speak at Wesleyan Convocation

Illinois Gov.-elect Dan Walker will be the featured speaker at 10 a.m. Thursday, Feb. 15, for Illinois Wesleyan University's annual Founders' Day Convocation. It was announced today by Dr. Robert E. Eckley, president of the university.

Walker will receive an honorary doctor of laws degree during the program which will be held in Westbrook Auditorium of Presser Hall. The program will be open free to the public.

Two Junior Achievers Make $100 Sales Club

Membership in the prestigious Junior Achievement $100 Sales Club already has been attained by two Granite City area achievers.

Cindy Brooks, 2313 E. 23rd St., and John Berry of Madison, are leading the way for the 350 student members of Junior Achievement who meet weekly at the JA Business Center, 3307 Wabash Ave.

Cindy sold 36 Bar-B-Q grills to area residents and John has more than $100 in sales of non-programmed matches and psychedelic lights being produced by his JA company.

The Bar-B-Q grill has been manufactured for each of the last three years by one of the JA miniature corporations sponsored by Granite City Steel Co. This year, "B.Q. Smokers" is the name of the company producing this product. The grill stands 28" high and has a cooking space of 18 by 25 inches. This year's model is made of heavy gauge 1/2 cuvert rings and features a cooking lid. It can be wheeled easily from place to place.

Lamp Lites, sponsored by American Steel Foundries, is John Berry's JA company. They currently rank third in center sales of the 12 manufacturing companies meeting weekly at the Granite City center.

Total sales for all of the companies through Dec. 15 was $5,333. Leading company in sales is JAPO, manufacturing fudge, which has reached $919 in sales of their product by all company members. JAPO is striving for membership in the $1,000 Club. Last year four of the Granite City miniature corporations achieved the distinction of having $1,000-plus in company sales. Only 38 of the 271 JA companies operating at 14 JA Centers in 1971-72 were $1,000 Club members.

Total company sales to date are running ahead of last year's rate for Granite City JA companies. Granite City residents have responded well to the products being manufactured and sold by JA members. Six of the 25 top sales companies of all 273 JA companies operating JA Centers are from Granite City.

In addition to Granite City Steel and American Steel Foundries, sponsoring firms for the JA companies are Illinois Power Co., A. O. Smith Corp., Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. and First Granite City National Bank.

Accepted by Missouri

Helen Gyarmati, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gyarmati, 2569 Waterman Ave., has been accepted as a freshman at the University of Missouri at Columbia for the 1973 fall term. She plans to enter the School of Physical Therapy upon completion of liberal arts requirements. She will graduate from Granite City High School in June.

French Horn Workshop Held at Carbondale

Nine-year-old John Pate of Watonsville was a bit nervous during the first annual French Horn Workshop held Dec. 9 by the School of Music at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

Paul Ingraham, principal horn with the New York City Ballet Orchestra, a member of the New York Brass Quintet and a regular member of the Casals Festival Orchestra in San Juan, Puerto Rico, was guest clinician for the workshop.

Ingraham conducted horn ensemble rehearsals for the high school and junior high students and held master classes for the soloists.

The workshop was arranged by George Nadaf, SIU horn teacher and conductor of the University Brass Ensemble.

Young musicians and their teachers from Eldorado, Harrisburg, Sandoval, West Pike, Zeigler-Rovalton, Rosiclare, Granite City and Carbondale were among the workshop participants.

Coolidge Student Makes Tesla Coil as Project

Forest Crawford, son of Mrs. Ruth Crawford, 2423 Edison Ave., and a ninth grade student at Coolidge Junior High School, built a Tesla coil for his project in unit electricity class.

The coil was invented by Nikola Tesla who worked for Thomas Edison. The one built at Coolidge changes 120-volt wall current into 100,000 volts. It is capable of lighting a fluorescent bulb as far as four feet away. The youth found the directions for making the coil in the July 1964 issue of Popular Electronics magazine.

He also built a "Jacob's ladder" of 12,000 volts where the current fires at the bottom of two copper pipes and goes to the top and breaks there, causing a flash and popping sound. These are used in some of the movies such as Frankenstein. His next project will be a "Mini Van deGraph" generator

TEACHER AIDE. Calvin Jarrell, a student at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, discusses a student's writing with Mildred Ronney, a sixth-grade teacher at Columbus School in Edwardsville. Jarrell is serving as a teacher aide as part of a cooperative program between the university and area school districts.

Teacher Aides Help in Area Classroom Teaching

Teacher aides from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville have helped improve the quality of classroom teaching, area school officials say.

SIXTEEN students are hired by the University's Student Work and Financial Assistance Office. The students are paid $2 per hour, 80% of which is picked up by the federal government under its work-study program. The school district hiring the student pays the other 20%.

"This program has been wonderful for us," says Joe Lucio, assistant superintendent of Edwardsville Community Unit District 7. "The student worker can prepare tests, check papers and work with pupils in the classroom. It takes some of the load off of teachers who have large classes."

One teacher, pleased with her aide, Calvin Jarrell, is Mildred Ronney, who has a sixth-grade class at Columbus School in Edwardsville. "He has been a great help, and he's working up a lesson for my sixth-graders on logical thinking based on a logic course he has taken at SIUE," she said. "This is a topic I've wanted to introduce for a long time, but I've never had the time to do it myself."

Jarrell, from Hardin in Calhoun County, is a theater and dance major at SIUE. Under the work-study program, he puts in 15 hours per week at Columbus School. Other university students working as teacher aides in the Edwardsville school district are Connie Highlander and Barry Walsh of Edwardsville, Janice Houska of Bethalto and Judith Poneta of Glen Carbon.

John Forbette, director of the Office of Teacher Education at SIUE, said other school districts have expressed interest in hiring university students as teacher aides.

The program provides field experiences for students committed to teaching or planning to declare an education major, Forbette said.

Carmen Kerr of the Student Work and Financial Assistance Office said to be eligible for the work-study program, a student must have a current ACT Family Information Statement or a Parents' Confidential Statement on file with the university. The student must be classified as full-time and must have completed 45 academic quarter hours.

Lucio said the Edwardsville schools are looking for more students because of the program's initial success.

"There are many possibilities for this program," Lucio said. "One thing we're looking for now is SIUE students with a background in business to help in the main office at the high school. We're interested in students who are interested in education and are willing to do some work in their field."

Ellington's Piano Stars In United Artists Issue

By JUDY HUGG
Copy News Service

Over the years the Duke Ellington piano has been one of the most elusive commodities in the musical marketplace. As any fan of the Duke knows, he prefers to wear the hat of composer-arranger to that of pianist. This was especially apparent with the Duke Ellington orchestra when Johnny Hughes took the spotlight, and the Duke's piano was a wisp here and there.

But in "Ellington, Mingus, Roach," a United Artists release in "The Douglas Collection," the Ellington piano comes through loud and clear — and great. Sure, Ellington still is the composer; all the songs are his except one shared credit. But this time the Duke shares the performance billing with only Charlie Mingus on bass (and what a bass) and Max Roach on drums.

The music ranges from the driving dissonances of "Money Jungle," the feathery "Flourishette Africaine," the bouncy "Very Special," to the smooth and moody "Warm Valley." It's the Duke at his best.

Other recent issues in the United Artist jazz collection include "Lady Love — Billie Holiday," "Coltrane Time — John Coltrane," "Art Blakey — The Jazz Messengers," and "King Pleasure."

Hearing this reissue of the Holiday sound turns back the years to the forties and fifties when this great and tortured talent was at the top of her career. Those were the days of "Cried For You," "I Cover The Waterfront," "Billie's Blues," and "Lover Come Back To Me."

Technical Command John Coltrane is the man who plays a tenor sax like it was a clarinet. His technical command of the instrument is so great that individual notes tend to get lost in a blur and the effect is like riding a roller-coaster without holding on. Such as when he takes off in "Shifting Down" on the United Artists LP.

The Coltrane brilliance also is heard on "Just Friends," "I Like Someone in Love," and "Double Clutching." Cecil Taylor also plays some fine piano on the LP.

1972 Canal Shipments to Set New Record

Freight tonnage shipped through the Chain of Rocks Locks and Canal during November will assure a 1972 record year for locks traffic by surpassing the former record of 50,747,918 tons set in all of 1970.

The total through November this year was 50,693,392 tons, including 5,054,465 tons in November. Last month's shipments did not exceed the all-time record for one month set in October, amounting to 5,391,130 tons.

October shipments included a record 2,649,680 tons of grain shipments which declined to 2,490,450 tons last month.

The November total included 5,054,465 tons of commercial cargo and 200 tons of government freight. The record October tonnage was all commercial freight.

Last month's figures exceeded the 4,242,330 tons shipped through the locks in November 1971. The total in all of 1971 was 45,210,987 tons.

A total of 6,388 vessels used the locks in November, fewer than the 6,779 in October. The numbers of all types of vessels declined except government tow boats which were constant at two each month, and government construction boats with none reported either month.

Down were the numbers of tow boats, from 1,064 in October to 1,054 in November; passenger boats, down from 10 to zero; barges, from 5,354 to 5,270; government contractor boats, from 13 to 4; recreation boats, from 129 to 46; government barges, from six to four, and government patrol boats, from 18 to eight.

A total of 792 lockages was reported during the month, fewer than the 847 in October.

The grand total for the first 11 months of 1972 is 9,885, about one-third more than the 6,357 during the same period of last year.

Total commercial tonnage moving upriver in November was 2,696,385 tons and 2,987,900 tons moved downriver. Freight shipments included: petroleum products, 545,550 tons upriver, 237,650 tons downriver; grain, 39,700 to 2,450,750 down; coal, 418,900 to 10,450 down; cement, sand and gravel, 24,700 up, 71,500 down; sulphur, 4,200 up, 5,500 down; miscellaneous commodities, 597,800 up, 68,400 down; iron and steel products, 25,300 up, 37,550 down; and chemicals, 403,415 up, 55,600 down.

Freeark, Others Named To State Racing Board

Governor-elect Daniel Walker yesterday named six additional proposed appointees to the Illinois Racing Board, after earlier designating State Rep. Anthony Scarnato as chairman. James T. Ols, an Evanston attorney, is to be vice-chairman. Walker said.

Members are to include Ray Freeark, a Belleville attorney and horse breeder who is publisher of "Illinois Thoroughbred," a racing magazine. Also selected are Sidney Hyman, Chicago criminologist; Mrs. Lucy Reum of Oak Park; Mrs. William Hewitt, a Rock Island horse breeder; and William Browder, a Wilmette businessman.

The seven appointments are subject to General Assembly approval. Walker said, "An entirely new board is needed to thoroughly control racing in Illinois. We will end race track politics in Illinois."

In loving memory of
ORTHIA NEWBERRY
December 27, 1971
Though suffering she breathed not a murmur
For the Comforter asked by her side
And whispered, "Fear not, I am with thee,
With Me shalt thou ever abide"
On the river a pale boatman hastened
She heard the soft dip of his oar
Then from earth and sorrow he bore her
Across to that beautiful shore
Sadly missed by all those who loved her

PACK 28 ENTERTAINERS AT SCOTT AIR BASE

The holiday season was observed by scouts of Cub Pack 28, sponsored by the Parkview PTCA, and their families when they traveled to Scott Air Force Base, to present a program of Christmas music and to distribute boxes of Christmas cookies.

The monthly pack meeting was held at the school, with Cubmaster Frank Fleming in charge. He announced the annual "blue and gold" banquet Sunday, Feb. 12, at the 300 Room of Tri Mor Bowl.

Dens displayed their holiday gift projects and the boys of the pack did their hand-crafted items. Included were felt card holders, snow scenes, game peg boards and wreaths.

Cubmaster Fleming invited each den to join in a "candy grab box," won by Kevin Brooks of Den One with 13 candy pieces in one handful. He received a plaque for first place.

Parents participated in a balloon contest, won by Mrs. Bone of Den Five. She was awarded a ribbon, and each boy of the den received another handful of candy.

Den Five, led by Mrs. DeLores Rose, gave the opening flag ceremony, and Den One mothers served refreshments under the direction of the den leader, Mrs. Suzanne Brooks.
